FOR SHERIFF

Republicans throughout Caledonia County endorse the candidacy of Byron M. Bundy for County Sheriff and repudiate Frederick A. Flint. Revelations, all of record, show certain facts concerning Frederick A. Flint. No mud will be thrown but the records will be permitted to speak. On December 15th last, Mrs. Lester N. Flint, wife of Frederick A. Flint, and mother of his two children, a frail, honest and intelligent little body, signed her petition for divorce from Frederick A. Flint and under oath declared therein that he had repeatedly beaten her cruelly and had threatened to take her life by shooting and prayed for protection by the Court. For ten months last past Frederick A. Flint has lived apart from his wife and during all of that time has been, and now is, under restraint by injunction from the Caledonia County Court from inflicting injury upon his wife. All this appears of record in Caledonia County Court. More records concerning this same candidate are available and will be published.

Vote for Byron M. Bundy for High Sheriff, a man that lives with his family and is capable, experienced and honest.

PRETTY WEDDING TAKES PLACE AT EAST BURKE

Miss Allis Harvey Is Bride of Franklin
Lynch

One of the prettiest of the fall weddings, and one in which many Lyndon and Burke people are interested, occurred Thursday afternoon, at three o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, in East Burke the contracting parties being Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Lynch of that town, and Allis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harvey of East Burke. This was a home wedding, and the guests were confined strictly to the immediate families, relatives, and most intimate friends, the most intimate friends, the number of invitations being about 40. The house was pleasantly decorated with autumn's bright leaves, mingled with roses, and made a charming background for the bridal pair. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Sutor, pastor of the Federated Churches, and was solemn and impressive. The wedding march was played by Miss Myrtle Sullivan. The sit-

TWO FOOTBALL GAMES FOR THIS WEEK-END

Academy Plays Vocational and Lyndon Tackles
Newport

The fans of Northeastern Vermont will be treated to their share of football this week, when four of the local school teams will throw down the gauntlet, and be hitting their stride in nearly mid-season form. Friday afternoon St. Johnsbury Academy and the Fairbanks Vocational school meet for their second battle of the season on the campus. In the former contest the academy was the winner by a score of 6 to 0. Since then coaches Nelson and Howes of the vocational warriors have been putting them through a stiff course of training and although both coaches are conservative in their statements, the general opinion seems to prevail among them and the members of the team that unless Dame Fortune is extremely fickle, the result will be more evenly balanced.

At Newport Saturday coach Kipp's battlers also have a return game. Their opponents this time will be the strong Lyndon Institute team. Newport has lost both games so far this season, and Lyndon has won both that she has entered. But Newport is going stronger every day and the Institute is weakened by a number of injuries to her heavy, but rather slow line so that the contest should be a more even nature.

AGREE ON COAL PRICE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—An agreement which is expected to result in fixing the maximum price of anthracite mined by independent operators at $9.25 to $10 at the mine has been reached by the Pennsylvania mines and fuel administrator Stand representing the Federal government. The agreement, announced here today by W. D. B. Ainey, chairman of the Pennsylvania fuel commission, is regarded by officials as assuring immediate reduction in hard coal prices now charged by independent operators controlling 20 per cent of the production thus ending a price discrepancy in many parts of the country.

Autumnal Beauty and Sun- shine Greet Host of Visitors Here

The 73rd annual convention of the Vermont Teachers' Association was distinguished at its opening session this afternoon at the St. Johnsbury Armory by an elaborate program of speeches. An audience estimated at 1200 was present when President Miss Etta Franklin promptly called the convention to order at 1:30.

Threatening skies overcast in the morning broke out with sunshine during the afternoon, and with St. Johnsbury in her full effulgence of autumnal beauty, the teachers' convention opened in a blaze of glory.

Governor James H. Hartness of Montpelier was not on the platform occupied by the speakers when the convention opened, but was expected any minute. Hon. Luther B. Johnson of Randolph, chairman of the state board of education, was unable to be present at the convention because of illness. It was expected that the Rev. Arthur Hewitt of Plainfield would give an ex-tempore speech in his stead.

Following prayer led by Rev. George W. Hylton, pastor of the Grace Methodist church, Arthur E. Stone officially welcomed the delegates to St. Johnsbury. Miss Etta Franklin of Rutland, president of the Vermont Teachers' Association, was chairman as the conference got under way at the Armory.

Mr. Stone began by referring to the assembled members of the teachers' convention as an "aristocracy of brains." The secretary of the St. Johnsbury Commercial Club was particularly happy in his remarks, radiating as he did, the

In the kitchen, adjoining the registration rooms, the ladies of the church were serving a very appetizing lunch to all who wished. Everything had the appearance of efficiency when the rush should begin as it did after the arrival of the St. J. and L. C. train from the west. No less than two hundred teachers arrived between 10:30 and 11:30 o'clock, but even this unprecedented rush did not seem to disturb the smooth functioning of the organization.

Among the early arrivals were Supt. D. W. McClelland and about 15 of his teachers who motored from Bennington.

The staff at the registration Bureau is comprised of the following: Arthur E. Stone, chairman; Rev. A. S. Woodworth, Miss Anna M. Stevens, Clerks, George A. Newell, J. A. McLeod, Miss Margaret Bailey, Miss Hazel
